CARDINAL

Dedication

We, the Class of 1951, respectively dedicate this yearbook to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Harlen, who have unselfishly devoted their time and services to us during our four years of high school. Under their supervision, guidance, and assistance, we have been better able to equip ourselves to face the challenge of tomorrow.

Senior Class History

The Seniors broke into high school back in '47 with just twenty members. They were as follows: Marilyn Mowrey, Laurel Keelen, Donna Schuetts, Carrie Ellen Hasbrook, Joanne Vander Meersch, Dorothy Bill, Roberta Crockett, Betty Anne Cathelyn, Bill Griffin, Richard Madsen, Raymond Lynch, Robert Schoffstall, Robert Miller, Glenna Hopkins, Mary An Johnson, Ray Lootens, Tom Nelsen, Jim Sprague, Jim DeBates, and Brian Rodgers. Later in the year, Dick Lanphere, Donna Malmquist, and Joanne Hurley joined the class.

The class held its first meeting under the guidance of Mr. Behrend, former music director, and elected the following as class officers: President, Tom Nelsen; Vice-President, Laurel Keelen; Secretary, Donna Schuetts; Treasurer, Robert Miller.

Black and green were selected for their class colors, and the banner was designed by Joanne Vander Meersch. Several boys of the class defended their colors by participating in football, basketball and track, and other school activities.

Twenty-two Sophomores met at the beginning of the next year and elected the following officers: President, Richard Madsen; Vice-President, Bill Griffin; Secretary, Stewart Smith; Treasurer, Bob Miller. Their sponsor this year was Mr. Host. Stewart Smith returned after attending one year at Military School. The annual Sophomore dance was held on November 12th in the form of a Sadie Hawkins Dance. The class also sponsored a bake sale on March 5th. In mid-March a swimming party highlighted their social events.

Returning the next year were twenty-three Juniors, sponsored by Mrs. Laura Peterson. They elected the following officers: President, Bill Griffin; Vice-President, Laurel Keelen; Secretary, Donna Schuetts; Treasurer, Richard Madsen. Two new students joined the class and three did not return. New members were Jack Sallade and Lois Plasscheart. Not returning were Donna Malmquist, George Hand, and Mary Ann Large.

All the Junior boys participated in football, basketball, and track. Junior lettermen were Bill Griffin, Dick Lanphere, Jim DeBates, Bob Miller, and Richard Madsen. Raymond Lootens and Jim DeBates went out for Cross Country. The girls in the class represented their colors well, too. They challenged the Senior and Sophomore girls combined, to a baseball and a basketball tourney and won both. Their successful production of "Head First" was the Junior play, directed by Mr. Stephenson. They gave a Prom and Banquet in honor of the Seniors. The theme of it was "The Gay Nineties."

In 1950, twenty members met to make up the Senior class. They held their first class meeting under the guidance of Mr. Harlan and Miss Wambaugh, the co-sponsors of the class. At this meeting, they elected their class officers as follows: President, Bill Griffin; Vice-President, Richard Madsen; Secretary, Raymond Lootens; Treasurer, Tom Nelsen.

Early in the season when the football squad reported their class was well represented with Richard Madsen, Bob Miller, Bob Schoffstall, Dick Lanphere, and Jim DeBates. Unfortunately, Jim DeBates was injured in the beginning of the season and was unable to play the rest of the year except for a few games. Basketball season found Jim DeBates, Tom Nelsen, Raymond Lootens, Bob Schoffstall, and Bob Miller on the team.

The Senior play, "Apron String Revolt" directed by Miss Wambaugh, was presented on November 17th.

Roberta Crockett and Stewart Smith attended the Little "8" Music Festival with the Band.

Eight of the Senior girls were in F. H. A., and all were letter winners. On May 20th, the Seniors held their Baccalaureate exercises and on May 25th, they left through the portals of Sheffield High and on to higher and greater achievements.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Sheffield High, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this document as our last will and testament. Any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely coincidental.

I, Bill Griffin, will to Miss Dorothy Wambaugh one book entitled, "Bringing Up Children," so that she may better understand the Senior class.

I, Donna Schuetts, will my ability to defend myself by arguing to one June Edwards. If you win as many as I did, June, you'll be doing well.

I, Jim DeBates, will my ability to go steady with one certain girl to one Driscoll Drew, just as long as he does not practice it on this one girl.

I, Raymond Lootens, will my ability to get along with Princeton girls with no disputes to one Leon Fox. (How's that, Ray?)

I, Laurel Keelen, will my desk beside the radiator to one Arleta Peterson. Don't worry, you won't freeze to death.

I, Stewart Smith, will my ability to trade cars and get a good deal at the same time to one Bud DeMay. Here's hoping you'll have as good luck as I did.

I, Dorothy Bill, will my curly hair to one Joe Johnson. Now you can stay out in the rain, and it won't go straight, Joe.

I, "Dizzy" Schoffstall, will one slightly-used alarm clock and a '46 Plymouth to Denny Morrasy. Maybe you'll get to school as often as I did.

I, Lois Plasscheart, leave my fine collection of sweaters to one Rosemary Gentry.

I, Tom Nelsen, will my ability to keep at least two girls satisfied at the same time tc Kaye Garrison.

I, Roberta Crockett, leave my rowdy sense of humor to one Marilyn Frank.

I, Marilyn Mowrey, will my ability to reduce to one Kathleen Jones. (Don't get too thin, Kathleen.)

I, Carrie Hasbrook, will to Pete VanMeir my ability to keep quiet.

I, Bob Miller, will my stately height and basketball playing ability to David Wilcoxson.

I, Joanne Vander Meersch, will to Alice Lempke my ability to go with blonds (boys) exclusively.

I, Mary Johnson, will my athletic ability to Ellen Nutter.

I, Dick Lanphere, will my ability as a good chauffeur for practically the entire Senior class to one Frank Gebeck.

I, Darlene Wicht, will five used round trip tickets to Annawan to one Edith Newman. (Careful, Edith.)

I, Betty Ann Cathelyn, will ten reams of typing paper and five erasers to the Typing II class. Maybe this will save somebody more paper than it saved me.

I, Richard Madsen, leaves to Camille McCune my ability to be at school on time every day regardless of weather. (Early, Richard?)

We, the Senior boys, will to Mr. Cronister one book entitled "1001 Calisthenics Made Easy."

We, the Senior class, will to Joe Stevens two books entitled "How To Cut Your Working Time In Half."

Witnessed and signed in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

Senior Class Prophecy

October 22, 1965

Dear Jim,

Well, the class of "51" had a bang up time at our class reunion last week. It was real nice of Tom to ask us to Washington this year, but we certainly missed you and your good humor. I thought I would drop you this letter and try to give you an idea of what all of our former classmates are now doing.

As you know, Tom Nelsen asked us to Washington, D. C. for our class reunion. He had rooms for all of us at the White House. It seems only yesterday that we were teasing Tom about being our future president. Of course, he is making a success of it as we thought he would. Lola is a very charming hostess and first lady.

I was the first one there, since my band, "Bob Miller and his Bob Cats," was engaged in New York the week before. I just flew down to Washington and sent the band on to Chicago where we have a recording date this week. I am really having a time. A bachelor's life certainly agrees with me.

About an hour after I came, Bill Griffin flew in. You know, he is now a cheese salesman from a big Madison, Wisconsin factory. Usually, he sells in and around Madison, since he wants to be near his family. Bill hasn't changed a bit since the old days, still kept us laughing all the time.

Richard Madsen was on his way to New York to board the Queen Elizabeth to sail for England and was there only for a couple of days. As you know, Richard went to college after his hitch with the Army and became, as I hear, a very famous man in his field of Engineering. Right now his latest project is to supervise the building of a bridge across the English Channel. Richard says he is tired of hearing all about everyone trying to swim it and just wants to make things easier for everyone.

As you know, Donna Schuetts' play on Broadway just closed after a two-year run, so she was able to be with us the whole week. She starts rehearsing next month for her newest play, for which she promises us all tickets if it goes over.

Laurel Griffin, formerly Keelen, drove here from Sheffield. Noel is on leave for a couple of months, so they used this reunion as kind of a vacation. Of course, they brought all of the kids with them, and the White House was livened with all of them sliding down the banisters all day long.

Carrie Ellen Hasbrook was there and told us she was now happily married with six children. I forgot her husband's name.

Dorothy Bill, who has been in the field of studying human behavior, is now working on a new theory for high school students--"How To Learn Without Studying." It will be in book form and all of us will be the first to get copies.

Raymond Lootens is teaching his favorite subject at Ohio State. He says he will always thank Miss Wambaugh for interesting him in English so much that he made a career of it.

Stewart Smith is now known as "Wild Stew Smith," the used car dealer, around the Sheffield area. It seems Stewart got so used to having a lot of cars in high school that he continued buying more and more until he had a business. He has a knack for getting good deals.

Mary An Johnson is now a child nurse to some of the finest families in Chicago. She loves her work and is becoming quite an authority on the behavior of children. I guess she is writing articles for leading magazines.

Marilyn Mowery is taking her career in the Army Nurse Corps seriously. Marilyn went in right after high school days, as you remember, and has now one of the highest promotions in that service.

Joanne VanderMeersch came from her publishers in New York. Her latest best seller is now about to be printed. It seems she chose as the subject our adventures in Sheffield High School. It seems she is calling it, "The Thrills and Chills of Sheffield High School." The Chills we thought are probably those cold winter days. She says her publisher says it is the most unusual novel of its kind due to the peculiar characters in it.

Lois Plasscheart now has a girls' quartet of her own which she manages as well as sings in. They are now trying to decide on different Hollywood offers.

Darlene Wicht is working right here in Washington in one of the larger office buildings. She is a private secretary for some large firm. Darlene says it was due to all of the training in Sheffield Typing and Shorthand classes that got her this far.

Dick Lanphere has one more year to go before he retires from the Navy. As you remember, Dick joined as soon as he graduated and has made quite a career of it. Tom is thinking of making him one of his advisors in the Navy's affairs.

Betty Ann Cathelyn is working on the staff of a Chicago newspaper. She is their reporter on fashions. Betty said she first became interested in this by working on the Cardett and just continued in this field after graduation.

Roberta "Curly" Crockett and Robert "Dizzy" Schoffstall were both two days late. This made us think that they hadn't changed from the days they would walk in the Study Hall a few minutes late each morning. Curly, as you know, is with the Women's Police Department in Chicago and has just helped uncover a large gang of smugglers.

Dizzy is now touring the country with his Dare-Devil Act. He has a group of ten cars and eight drivers. I read that this is one of the most thrilling daredevil acts ever to be presented. Of course, Diz is the star, and thrills the crowds every night with his death-defying acts.

Well Jim, I guess that's about all. I hope you have success with your football team this year. I hear you are picked by the experts to uphold the record of the University of Illinois in your first year. See you at the Rose Bowl and remember me to Joyce and the kids.

Your cousin,
Bob "Goo Goo" Miller

Marilyn Frank was the only new member beginning the new year. After the first semester, Bobby Dedmore left the class. Three of the boys were out for football, and six returned for basketball. A few of the girls and boys also were active in the Dramatic Club. The Freshmen are looking forward to their remaining years in high school.

The Freshmen chose their class colors as red and grey, and the banner was designed by June Edwards.

Freshman Initiation

On Friday, September 19th, the annual Freshman initiation rolled around with the Seniors in a jovial mood. The Freshmen came to school all dressed up in their Sunday best, which ranged from long winter underwear to some boys wearing shorts and halters.

The Freshies carried their books around in a various assortment of containers, such as bushel baskets, pails, gunny sacks, and so on. They showed their appreciation to the Seniors by bowing down and saying "Honorable Seniors, I adore thee," while they graciously shined the Seniors' shoes.

The new teachers also dressed up for the occasion by wearing green ribbons in their hair, green aprons, straw hats, loafers and anklets, and egg cartons for purses.

In the evening, Dick "Ralph" Edwards" Lanphere presented his show "Truth or Consequences" for us. The Freshmen, of course, thought they'd try to match wits with him.

The first contestant to come up was Jack Gentry, who was dressed like a baby. Jack failed to correctly answer his question so since he had been acting like a baby lately, his consequence was to sit in a high chair for the rest of the evening and play with his toys.

Then June Edwards and David Wilcoxson came up and failed to answer the question, "Why did the little Freshies take a bicycle to bed," and they had to meet the consequences. Since June likes to draw we sent her out in the audience to draw individual sketches of the people in two minutes and present it to them. Dave, of course, being inseparable from June, went along to shine shoes.

The next contestants were Jim Van Loo and Nancy Stevens. Jim and Nancy were so engrossed in each other they forgot to answer the question before the bell and had to meet their fate. Since Jim is a little bashful, we let him propose to Nancy while washing her feet. Nancy was a little stubborn in saying "Yes" to the big question, though.

For our next contestants, we were really thrilled to have that famous strongman, Leon Fox. Leon didn't know that there have only been 32 instead of 39 presidents, so we decided to have him demonstrate his muscles for us. Leon also told the boys in the audience what to eat to be big and strong like him.

Then we had a young musician, Marie Giltner, and her monkey, one Connie Hewitt. The bell interrupted their line of thought and the two had to face the consequences. Marie played her flute for the audience and her monkey performed tricks.

Then a very little boy who gave his name as Terry came up on the stage and told us he'd lost his mother so we granted him permission to go out in the audience and ask the women if they were his mommy. Of course, he had to rest himself while doing so by sitting on the men's laps.

Then our singing duet, Anita Sprowls and Ronnie Moore, managed to sing to the audience about our sponsor, "Guey Hair Shampoo." They were so good they even sang without music. We're sure they managed to convince the audience that this shampoo guaranteed to leave the hair straight.

Then we had a very well dressed woman come up. She gave her name as Marilyn Frank. Marilyn didn't know that the Freshie took hay to bed with him so he could feed his nightmare so she had to meet the consequences. We thought Marilyn would like to duck for apples blindfolded, so we brought out a tubful. Somehow or other, though, during the process of doing so, assistant Joanne Vander Meersch, accidently got a pan of flour in the way and Marilyn came up with a face covered with flour.

Our next contestants were Kaye Cogger and Bobby Klatt. The bell accidently rang before they could answer the question so they had to face the consequences. The two were blindfolded and tried to feed each other baby food. Seems as though neither liked the squash.

The next two to come up were our guest stars for the night. They were the well-known make-up artists, Don Hasbrook and Bob Dedmore. The two kindly demonstrated on each other their ability to use eye shadow, eyebrow pencils, lipstick, and so on. It seems as though they put them to a different use than most women.

The next kind gentleman to step up was Eddie Van Meir, who managed to miss the easy question, "How many gallons of water are there in the ocean?" Eddie then showed us his ability to roll around the gym inside a tire. Guess it must have been a flat tire as he didn't do very good.

The next Freshie to come up was Verleigh Cunningham. Ralph Lanphere Edwards thought since she liked school so well she'd at least know how many boards that were in the gymnasium, but she didn't, so we let Verleigh count the boards, and she yelled it out for every hundredth board.

Well, guess who our next contestant was, Joyce Speakman and Joanne Van de Keere. The two were stumped by Ralph's question so they faced the consequence. Joyce knew a little about ballet so we let her try to teach Joanne. Seems as though both were a little on the clumsy side.

Then we had that famous Hopalong Cheryl Jones. Hopalong likes horses so she demonstrated, on a wooden horse, her ability to teach them tricks.

The next two to come up were Ronnie Hull and Frank Morassy. The two having recently won many beauty contests, we let them tell the crowd their points of beauty and also their faults. We came to the conclusion that they didn't think much of each other.

Our last contestant was a cute girl dressed in shorts and a halter. She gave her name as Walter Hasbrook. The bell rang before we even got through giving Walt his question so he had to pay the consequences. To wind up the evening, we let Walt draw a big picture of a Freshie for the audience while he was blindfolded.

The Seniors seeing how the time ran out invited the Freshmen to attend the dance that followed.

About twenty candidates were present for the first practice of our Cards.

After a few weeks of conditioning, the season opened with three successive victories. The squad tackled Tiskilwa in the first game, chalking up an 18-7 victory. DeBates and Miller did the scoring, then on they went to crush Bureau 46-0, but this was a disastrous blow for Jim DeBates, who fractured his collar bone. Drew was high scorer. The next Friday they continued this burning pace by scorching Nalden 34-7. Schoffstoll carried the mail for the Cards.

On the following Friday, the Cardinals played Lamoille and were defeated for the first time, 36-13. Drew and Miller shared the scoring for the Cards. The next Friday was more successful than last. On this day, Wyanet was defeated 36-13. Drew, Smith, and Miller toted the luggage for the Cards, then on to Neponset where the Cards were defeated 45-0.

In the Homecoming game, the Cards gained a tie with a scrappy Buda squad. The score ended at 19-19. Miller and Schoffstoll did all the goal crossing. The following Friday, the Cardinals scored an impressive victory over Ohio, 13-12. Schoffstoll did all the scoring. In the last game of the season, Manlius defeated Sheffield, 52-0.

At the end of the season, Bob Miller and Bob Schoffstoll were elected co-captains for the year.

High School Basketball For -50-'51

Twenty-two boys reported to Sheffield's court when the '50-'5i basketball season opened in November. The Cardinals met the Annawan Braves at home in the initial game of the season and chalked up a 60-43 victory. Five successive Cardinal victories were followed by an upset by Manlius which resulted in a 56-6i triumph for the Red Devils. Sheffield's only loss in the Little Eight Conference was a 50-65 clash with Ohio.

Instead of having a Sheffield Invitational Tournament, the Cardinals participated in the Mt. Carroll Holiday Tourney in which they placed fourth and set a Mt. Carroll Tournament single game scoring record of 88 points. Again Tom Nelsen tied the record of individual scoring with 84 points in four tourney games.

For the records, the Cardinals were the Little Eight's high scorers with 538 points. Sheffield won twenty-two of their thirty games. They scored 1963 points or an average of 65.4 per cent per game. This year's squad broke all Sheffield's previous scoring records. Wendell Smith won the free throw Trophy with a 68.6 per cent average. Dizzy Schoffstall placed second with 58 per cent.

Major letter winners this year were Bob Miller, Jim DeBates, Tom Nelsen, Bob Schoffstall, Russell Hansen, Wendell Smith, Ray Lootens, and Manager Marvin Cunningham.

Winners of emblems were Kaye Garrison, Frank Gebeck, Don Pinney, Harold Lambert, Walter Hasbrook, Terry Nutter, Jack Gentry, David Wilcoxson, Eddie Van Meir, Bobby Klatt.

Individual Performances

Jim DeBates: "Mick" was one of the five Seniors on the squad, and was a consistent scorer during the season; also he was a valuable rebounder.

Bob Miller: "Gook" was another Senior. He was a dangerous man both on defense and offense, for he got a good share of the rebounds. Also "Gook" had a good hook shot.

Tom Nelsen: "T" was a very effective scorer for the Cards. During the latter part of the season, he became a helpful rebounder. "T" was also one of the Seniors on the squad.

Bob Schoffstoll: "Dizzy," also a Senior, was an effective scorer as well as a good rebounder.

Raymond Lootens: "Ray," the last of the Seniors, had a good set shot and was a good defensive reserve.

Russell Hansen: "Russ," a Junior, was a very good defensive guard and he will give headaches to opposing teams next year.

Wendell Smith: "Smitty," a Sophomore, was a consistent scorer and shows good rebounding ability.

Sixth Grade

Twenty sixth graders started their last year "downstairs" in September, 1950. There were twelve girls and eight boys. One member who left last last year was Harriet Spicher, who moved to Wisconsin. Ronald Sturm left the class, too.

Besides keeping busy with everyday school study, the class activities cover a wide range of interests. Four girls in the Junior High Band are Helen Hewitt and Marvia Vermeulen, clarinets; Jo Ann Morman, saxophone; and Joyce Sprowls, drums. In the Grade School Band, Wayne Barron plays a clarinet. Three tap and ballet dancers are Barbara Clay, Barbara Gentry, and Marcia Vermeulen. Ruth Ann DeBolt is interested in her piano lessons. Helen Hewitt is "Rookie" on the Sassy Sal softball team. Three hard-working members are Eddie Rosenow, Janet Riggs and Ronald Pease. Four future basketball players are Eddie Rosenow, Maury Redman, Gary Lyle, and Wayne Olson, who practice with the Junior High teams.

Last fall, the sixth graders won prizes for Halloween pictures on downtown store windows. Helen Hewitt won first, Eddie Rosenow and Gary Lyle, second, and Cynthia Ray and Janet Riggs, third.

A second semester reading interest in grade six are our new books, "Let's Read Together Poems." The class enjoys this informal choral reading.

The class took a poll which resulted in the following:

Best students--Joyce Sprowls and Ruth Ann DeBolt.

Best girl artist--Helen Hewitt.

Best boy artists--Gary Lyle and Eddie Rosenow.

Class comediennes--Carolyn Verhagen and Marcia Vermeulen.

Class "bookworm"--Ruth Ann DeBolt, who read 48 books the first semester.

Best disposition--Carolyn Verhagen.

In the Christmas play, "Santa's Vacation," Wayne Olson had one of the leading roles as Santa Claus and did a fine job. Speaking and solo singing parts were also taken by Cynthia Ray, Jo Ann Morman, Marcia Vermeulen, Janet Riggs, and Maury Redman.

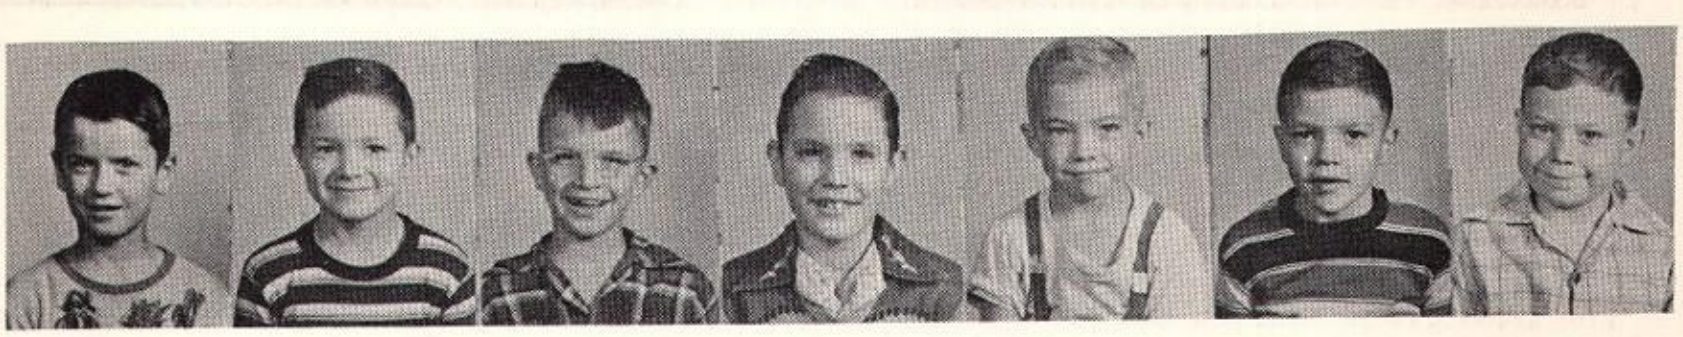
Third and Fourth Grades

The third grade had ten members this year. The fourth grade had seventeen. Julie Hopkins left in September, and Diana Gibson entered in the same month.

The boys enjoyed playing basketball at noon. They had several games with boys of other grades.

Outstanding activities this year included the basketball games at noon in which we competed with other grades. All the children took part in the Christmas program.

The third grade completed five reading books, and the fourth grade completed four.



Second Grade

ROW ONE: Harvey Andrew, Rebecca Boyden, Mary Louise Carlson, Patricia Daniels, Tommy DeBates, Ray DePauw, Robert Lucas.

ROW TWO: Joseph Edlin, James Eggimann, Austin Folk, James Chasteen, Penny Jo Griffin, Robert Hadley, Richard Kaufman.

ROW THREE: David Lyle, James Smith, Philip Lyle, Henry Prescott, Vernon Riggs, John McKee, Roger Nutter.

ROW FOUR: Jenny Lou Sipes, Eugene Smith, Ronald Taylor, Linda Thomas, Mary Ellen VanAcker, Larry Van Vooren, Ronald Wilhelm.

ROW TWO: Janet Hellberg, Donald Kane, Alice Larson, Mary Louise Olson, Carol Ann Rosenow, John W. Standard, David VanDrew.

First Grade

The first grade started the year of 50-51 with seventeen enrolled. Carol June Crittendon left us to make her home in Buda. Robert Brown went to Morrison, and Cecil Kaufmann entered the Midland Michigan School.

Second Grade

Twenty-nine children enrolled in the second grade the first day of school. Patricia Fillingham moved to Mineral District March first; otherwise our enrollment was constant throughout the year. Penny Jo Griffen had a perfect attendance when this book went to press. Patricia Fillingham had read the most reading circle books. That was fifty-six books. Every child expects to read all eight of this year's books.

We have had three parties this year, Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's party. We sang a birthday song for each child who has a birthday on a school day.

Mrs. Frances Hansen substituted two weeks and two days in January, and Mrs. Mildred Wilt substituted two weeks and four days in January and February when Mrs. Serie was in the St. Francis Hospital in Peoria for a back injury.

Our Basketball Team in 500000000 B. C.

The Dingley Cave Men went down to defeat before the terrific onslaught of the Sheffield Rock Crushers by a score of 1700-1500.

Elmo Oakslimb, of Dingley, led in the scoring for his team with 500 baskets to his credit. He was soon taken from the game, amid the protests of the Dingley crowd because of killing five referees and twelve of the spectators.

The scintilating floor work of our main forward, Crossbok Brassknuckles, was short of miraculous. After scoring 700 baskets, he injured three of the Dingley players by dropping rocks on their heads.

It was a very short game, as it lasted only two weeks, eight hours, and sixty-one minutes.

Lineup:

Dingley		Sheffield
E. Oakslimb	Forward	C. Brassknuckles
Axle Tooth	Forward	Iron Head
Strong Breath	Center	Rusty Chin
Mules' Legs	Guard	Saber Tooth
Brass Ears	Guard	Pig Iron

Jim: "Say, a fellow just told me I looked like you."
Bob: "Where is he? I'll smash his face in."
Jim: "He isn't. I just killed him."

He: "Darling, there is something that has been trembling on my lips for days."
She: "Why don't you shave that ridiculous thing off then."

Lynn L.: "Don't you think the talkative women are most popular?"
Denny M.: "What other kinds are there?"
